Uniting special districts and stakeholders as one voice, NSDC fosters strong national collaboration to strengthen and advance essential community service enhancing American communities' quality of life.

Organized in 2018, a group of special districts associations in California, Colorado, Florida, Oregon, and Utah established a memorandum of understanding to share resources, collaborate on best practices, and openly network to identify solutions to common problems for special districts across the U.S. The Coalition expanded its mission in 2021 to federally advocate for special districts to receive equitable access to critical programs available to local governments.

The Coalition is comprised of associations, organizations, and businesses representing and supporting special districts across the country.
