

The National Special Districts Coalition (NSDC) consists of associations, organizations, and businesses each representing and supporting special districts, which are special purpose units of government created to provide public services, with local oversight, that other units of government do not otherwise provide.

AFFILIATE MEMBER

Affiliate Members shall be those businesses and/or organizations that provide services, products, and/or have evidenced interest in the purposes and goals of NSDC and do not fall under the Regular or Associate Member categories. Affiliate Members may also be individual special districts that are not currently included and/or represented by a NSDC Regular or Associate Member. Affiliates have no voting privileges. There shall be no limit to the number of Affiliate Members admitted supporting the NSDC.

BENEFITS

Affiliate Membership is an opportunity to support our members, strengthen our industry voice, and further the goals of NSDC and special districts across the country.

- Support NSDC efforts including advocacy and awareness of special districts at the state and national level
- Increased exposure to state and national special district audiences
- Contribution Level recognition on NSDC communication platforms
- Periodic DC legislative reports highlighting important issues impacting special districts
- Periodic invitations to Legislative Committee briefings
